

Free puppy videos

Congratulations on getting your new puppy, the next few months are going to be a lot of fun, but there is also a lot to do as the younger they are when you start socialisation and training, the more effective it is.

To ensure your pup is confident with other people and dogs and happy with new experiences throughout their lives, watch these essential videos...

Handling puppies

Puppies need to be used to human hands all over their bodies, for grooming and vet checks. This video shows how to start this process

Puppy's first vet visit

This video shows how easy your first vet visit can be if you have done some preparation beforehand

Bite inhibition

Puppies bite. It's a fact, and it is essential that they do – to learn how delicate human skin is and how they have to be careful with us. This video explains how to teach them to be gentle.
